Second Sunday of Lent

☹️ In our Gospel reading this week, we hear Jesus crying out in sadness over the city of Jerusalem. Jerusalem was a very special place for God's chosen people, but when Jesus came, the people of Jerusalem rejected him. Jesus longed for his children to turn from their ways and to come to him. When a group of religious leaders warned Jesus that King Herod wanted to kill him, Jesus compared Herod to a fox.

If you remember the story of Little Red Hen, you will know that foxes are fond of eating hens and chickens! A mother hen will protect her brood by sheltering them under her wings. Jesus felt like a mother hen, wanting to shelter and protect her children. Jesus didn't stop calling his children because they rejected him. He called them – and still calls them – to come to him so that he can protect them. He won't stop calling until all his children come back to him.

🙏 Prayer for this week:

Dear Jesus, thank you for loving us so much that you protect us as a mother hen shelters her chicks. Keep us close to you, so that we never stray from you. Amen.
